On the 13th February
1878, the Director of Public Instruction submitted

an application for 3 ^{months} ~~on behalf of~~ privilege leave to Mr.

Hodson Inspector of Schools, and proposed as the most economical arrangement, that the current work of the 1st Circle Inspector should be attached to his (Director's) office for the time being -

2 The leave to Mr.
Hodson was accordingly
sanctioned and in communicating it to the Director, he was informed that the arrangement proposed by him for conducting the work of the Inspector of the First Circle was approved -

3 Mr Rice now application to draw an allowance for the same amount of time.

of the 1st Circle was sanctioned to Mr Rice
for performing the duties of that office
in addition to his own, and the matter reported to Govt in their Office letter No 5-27-20-18 H. The precedent

quoted by Mr. Rice
cannot hold good
now, it must be considered as superseded
by the more recent ruling contained in the Acting allowance Code, and under the last clause of Section 24, b of the same
Code, which says
"What Dir. does"
I submit, the Dir. does not submit the matter
for doing the work of the office of the 1st Circle Inspector --

at which time no prohibition to a Director drawing Actue allowance for doing the work of an Inspector existed. But since then there have been additional to the Acting Allowance Code besides the issue of 3rd Edition. - Section 23 lays down
rules for the allowance to be drawn by an Officer acting in one or more appointments. -
Section 24 exhibits the exceptions, and among others has the following:
"A Director of Pub. Inspection, or one of his Inspectors, or one Inspector in the Educational Dept doing the work of a fellow Inspector in addition to his own." - -

The Director of Public Instruction - now, was accordingly informed that his claim to the acting allowance cannot be admitted, he now forwards a docket from the Deputy Accountant General wherein Mr Hudson states that if the Director has been appointed to conduct the office work of the Inspector of Schools the Chief Commissioner may sanction such charge allowance as he may deem suitable according to the terms of Section 23 of the Acting Allowance Code -

They respectfully re-point out that Section 24 clearly states that Section 23 is not applicable to a Director of Public Instruction during the duties of an Inspector of Schools.
